Inner City Law Center honored 9th Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Dorothy W. Nelson and Los Angeles City Council President Eric Garcetti at its annual fundraiser award luncheon last week at the Millennium Biltmore Hotel in downtown Los Angeles. Nelson, who helped establish the Western Justice Center, the Western Center on Law and Poverty, the Chicano Law Center and the Center on Law and Aging, received the Humanitarian Award. Garcetti, who championed funding of the Affordable Housing Trust Fund, supported year-round homeless shelters and wrote a law protecting renters, received the Katharine Krause Award. Pictured are, from left, Garcetti; Inner City Law Center Executive Director Adam Murray; Nelson; Inner City Law Center Board Chairman Daniel J. Woods, a partner at White & Case; and James F. Nelson, a retired Los Angeles, Superior Court judge and husband of Dorothy Nelson.
