

LOS ANGELES

Daily Journal

Inner City Law Center Holds Awards Luncheon

Left- Inner City Law Center Board President Dan Woods, partner at Musick, Peeler & Garrett LLP.

Right-Luncheon Co-Chairs James Evans Jr. partner at Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Margaret Levy partner at Manatt, Phelps & Phillips.

Left-Stephen M. Kristovich, accepting the 2012 Humanitarian Award on behalf of Munger, Tolles & Olson LLP from Adam Murray, Executive Director of Inner City Law Center.

Right-Dorothy Wolpert partner at Bird, Marella, Boxer, Wolpert, Nessim, Dooks & Lincenberg and Dr. Judith Broder, founder of The Soldiers Project and recipient of 2012 Katharine Krause Award.

June 15, 2012

LOS ANGELES-More than 400 leaders from the legal, civic, and business communities gathered at the Millenium Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles for Inner City Law Center's Annual Awards Luncheon on June 6.

Inner City Law Center honored Dr. Judith Broder of the Soldiers Project for her program that provides free mental health counseling to veterans of the Iraq and Afghanistan wars and their families.

Also honored was Munger, Tolles & Olson for its support of the clients and work of Inner City Law Center.

The event raised a record-breaking $400,000 to power ICLC's work with low-income tenants and homeless veterans.