Awards Luncheon Update

Tomorrow afternoon, 500 of Los Angeles' most respected judges, political figures, attorneys and other professionals will gather to honor Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP and Maggie Levy as well as former Secretary of Labor Hilda Solis. Our Awards Luncheon will be held from 12:00-1:30 p.m., at The L.A. Hotel Downtown located at 333 South Figueroa Street (Please note the change in venue from previous years). Will you be joining us?

We are less than 24 hours away from making ICLC history! There is only $25,000 left for us to reach our goal of $500,000 - a record breaking amount for ICLC! Help us help Los Angeles' most vulnerable. Thank you to those who have personally contributed - we could not do the work we do without your support!

We are very pleased to announce that introducing our two honorees are two people familiar with making history - Judge Lee Smalley Edmon, the first woman Presiding Judge of LA Superior Court and a former ICLC board member, as well as LA City Attorney-elect and former Bet Tzedek Executive Director, Mike Feuer.

For those attending, valet parking will be available for $15 with validation.

Thank you for your support. Hoping to see you tomorrow.

About Inner City Law Center

Inner City Law Center is the preeminent housing and homelessness legal-services organization working on behalf of poor people in Southern California. As the only provider of legal services located on Skid Row in downtown Los Angeles, ICLC combats slum housing throughout Los Angeles and develops strategies to end homelessness.

Each year, ICLC's staff of 40 (including 20 attorneys) provides free, high-quality legal representation to thousands of low-income tenants, working-poor families, immigrants, people who are homeless or disabled, and veterans. Driven by the fundamental principle that every person should always be treated with dignity and respect, ICLC works for long-term, positive, and meaningful change.
