RSVP FOR AN UPCOMING TRAINING TODAY

Ticket Clearing – Online Training
April 7 & 15, 2020
Noon – 1:15 p.m.

It is common for individuals experiencing homelessness to receive quality-of-life citations for sleeping on the sidewalk, open containers, and jaywalking - things that are hard to avoid if you live on the streets. The resulting fines and fees often serve as obstacles to securing a pathway to safe and stable living. This training session will go over the laws, rules, and procedures necessary for pro bono attorneys interested in taking on citation cases. 1 hour of MCLE credit will be provided.

Unlawful Detainer/Eviction Defense – Online Training
April 9 & 23, 2020
Noon – 1:30 pm

Every night, nearly 58,000 people are homeless in Los Angeles County. Many families become homeless after being illegally evicted. This training will go over the basics of eviction defense law and procedure so pro bono partners can defend tenants against unlawful evictions and keep them housed. 1.25 hours of MCLE credit will be provided.

Cultural Sensitivity – Online Training
April 21 & 30, 2020
4:30-5:45 pm

Pro bono cases provide great opportunities to work directly with clients. At ICLC, we want to ensure that our pro bono partners build strong and meaningful relationships with their clients. This training provides guidance for working with clients facing poverty, trauma, and physical/mental health issues through trauma-informed practices, an understanding of implicit bias, and empathy. 1 hour of MCLE credit for Elimination of Bias will be provided.
